FUR STORAGE

Dry Cold Air

IMPROVED METHOD

Attention is directed to our unusual facilities for storing furs and fur-lined garments, Fur Rugs, Robes, etc., against loss or damage by moth, fire or theft.

Proper care of furs means more than simply placing them in a cold room and keeping moths out.

Furs entrusted to us are cleaned without charge by vacuum and compressed air before being stored.

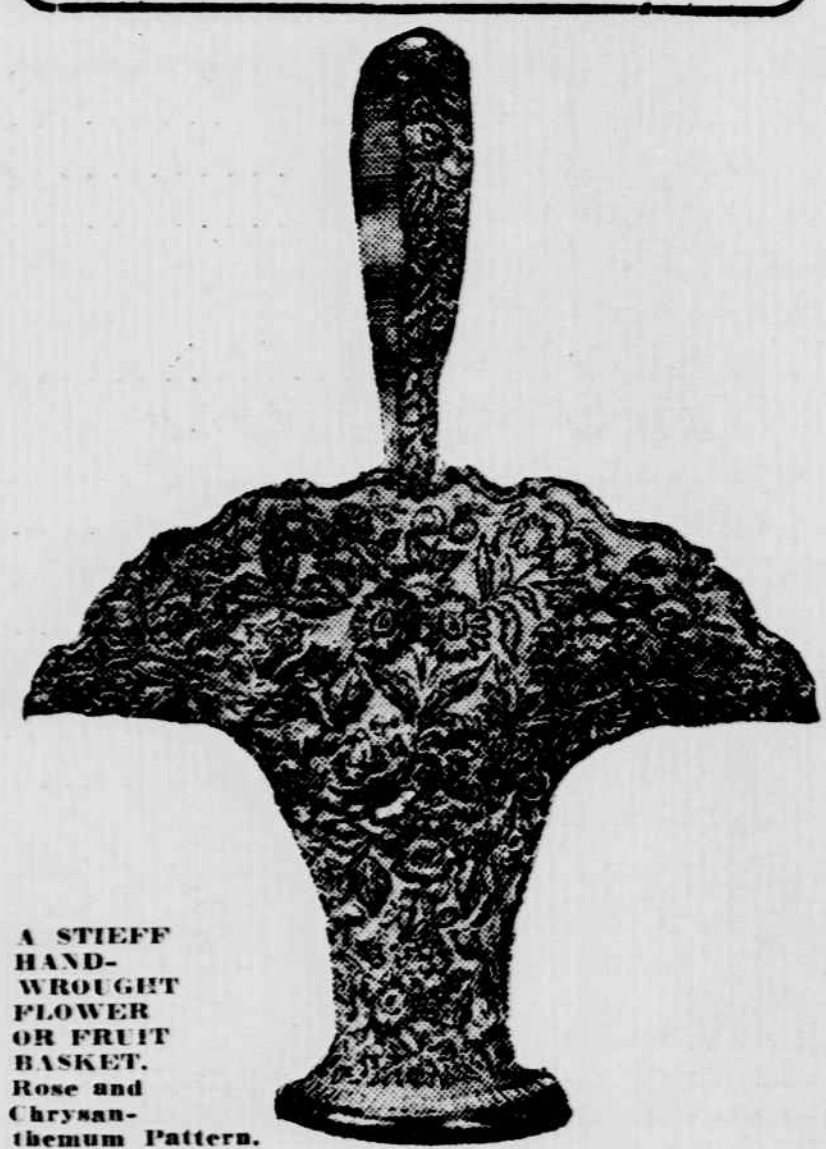

Our storage service offers skilled inspection and handling, reliable insurance and prompt collections and deliveries.

Repairs ordered when furs are placed in storage are executed at the minimum expense.

Stieff Silver

A Display of Quality Silverware

You have doubtless heard of the beauty in pattern and finish of the Stieff Hand-wrought Ware, made in Baltimore at the Stieff factory.

An opportunity is now offered you to view this famous ware at an interesting exhibition and sale now being held in Washington

At the Hotel Shoreham.

The display opened yesterday and was visited by many admirers of beautiful Silverware. It will continue today and tomorrow.

There is no more beautiful Sterling ware made than the work of the Stieff craftsmen. It is the recognized standard of quality. Every pattern is exquisitely beautiful and nothing of the beauty is lost in the skillful execution in the Stieff factory.

Visit the showing whether you wish to buy or not.

The horse pictures are said to far exceed those of the coronation in clearness and gorgeous coloring, for the air of Indiana so clear, the colors of the uniforms and trappings so gay and varied. From thirty to fifty pictures are taken in a second, making each person move as naturally as in life. The Kinemacolor ordered special concrete platforms built for the cameras and changed the procession routes so that the pictures would be perfect and the colors reproduced exactly as they were. In the cavalry charge and the polo tournament fifty films a second were taken. In the reception to the Indian princes the state garden party and the grand durbur ceremony are a blaze of rainbow hues.

It is evident from the sale of seats that the Association for Works of Mercy, whose benefit the matinees will be given, has hit upon a popular entertainment at a popular price.

In Memoriam.

BIAS. In loving remembrance of my dear husband, HENRY BIAS, who departed this life twelve years ago today, April 2, 1900. Rested one, so free from earthly cares. Repose in peace upon the Savior's breast; Farewell, farewell, until we cross the river; Oh rest, beloved one, forever rest!

BY HIS WIDOW, JANE BIAS.

FOLEY. In loving remembrance of my dear husband and our loving father, DANIEL FOLEY, who departed this life twelve years ago today, April 2, 1901. Mass was said at St. Martin's Church at 7 a.m. April 2 at the request of his family.

BY HIS WIFE AND SONS.

HINDLE. In sad but sweet memory of my dear husband, THOMAS H. HINDLE, who died one year ago today, April 2, 1911. Interment at St. Patrick's Church, April 2, 1912.

BY HIS DEVOTED WIFE, AGNES M. HINDLE.

JONES. In sad remembrance of our beloved father, Rev. SAMUEL JONES, who departed this life one year ago today, April 2, 1911. The voice is hushed, the dear heart is still. And on this loving brow has rested death's cold shroud.

We have kissed the loving brow. But in our aching hearts we know. We have not forgotten you. BY HIS LOVING DAUGHTERS, SARAH SCOTT AND SUSIE BUTLER.

MORRILL. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, ADOLPH MORRILL, who departed this life nine years ago today, April 2, 1903.

"Gone, but not forgotten."

BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

PADGETT. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, ELIZABETH R. PADGETT, who departed this life twelve years ago today, April 2, 1900. God called her home; it was His will. But in my heart I have her still. Her memory is as dear today. As on the day she passed away. BY HER LOVING DAUGHTER, ROSE.

RITTEKOR. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter and mother, GRACE FRUIT RITTEKOR, who left us five years ago today, April 2, 1907. Although forgotten by some she may be, And the flowers we lay on her grave may wither and decay. Yet her memory to us will never fade away. The voice we loved is still; God called her home; it was His will; But in our hearts she is as sweet still; Her memory is as sweet today. As in the hour she passed away. BY HER DEVOTED PARENTS.

SULLIVAN. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, ANASTASIA ELIZABETH SULLIVAN, who departed this life twenty-two years ago today, April 2, 1890. In the graveyard softly sleeping. Where the trees so gently wave, Lies the one we loved so dearly. In her lonely, silent chamber, Nor will they ever be. As long as life and memory last We will remember thee.

The flowers I lay upon her grave May wither and decay; But fresh and green as life and memory In my heart shall always stay. BY HER SONS, MICHAEL AND JOHN.

WILLIAMS. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, JULIA L. WILLIAMS, who departed this life nine years ago today, April 2, 1903. Nine years have passed, my heart is still sore; As time goes on I miss her more. Though her memory is as dear today As in the hour she passed away.

"The hard to break the tender cord When love has bound the heart." "This hard so hard, to speak the word: 'Must we forever part?'"

BY HER SON ROBERT.
